Hi Misty,

I found you through Traci at The Mom Entrepreneur – what a GREAT SITE! I've got you bookmarked now and thought I'd leave a note because:

a) My company, Maiden America, is mom owned – my unbeatable patent pending non slip hair clips are made by moms, military wives, etc here in the Pacific Northwest and...

b) we use NO TOXIC GLUES, Paper Packaging, etc.

c) I have some giveaways happening at the moment – see the top of my homepage for how to enter those if you have fine-haired little ones (or dog "babies") in your life and d) I'm passionately and decidedly a pro-parent / pro-childhood company – founded it in response to the adult themed products being marketed to our young girls these days.

SO I just had to comment – what you're doing is fabulous. As a newly homeschooling mom with a business and two blogs going, maintaining the connections and inspirations is paramount to the success of moms making a difference. I'll try and get a link up to send people to your site – it's fab!

Warmest Regards,
